

University City Public Library 3D Printing

Policy

The Library's 3D printer is available to the public to make three-dimensional objects in plastic using a digital design file uploaded from a USB drive.

The Library's 3D printer may only be used for lawful purposes. No member of the public may use the Library's 3D printer to create any object that is:

- Prohibited by local, state or federal law.
- Unsafe, harmful, dangerous or poses an immediate threat to the well-being of others.
- In violation of another's intellectual property rights. The printer may not be used to reproduce material that is copyrighted, patented or trademarked without the right holder's consent.

The Library reserves the right to refuse any 3D print request.

Supervision of the use of the 3D printer by Library staff does not constitute knowledge, or acknowledgement, of any unapparent final use of the 3D product, and the Library specifically disclaims any knowledge thereof.

Any individual using the Library's 3D printer agrees to assume all responsibility for, and shall hold the Library harmless in, all matters related to the individual's use of the 3D printer, including but not limited to violations of patent, trademark and/or copyright law.
